1. Enterprises no longer to be subordinate to the HV Liquid Fuels of the State Secretariat for Chemistry in West Berlin and to be turned over to communal authorities on 1 January 1952 included: VEB Lubricant Factory at Brandenburg/Havel; VEB Chemical Factory at 7 Erich Koebert Strasse, Dessau; VEB Morian Wax Factory at Voelzke, Kreis Haldensleben; VEB Factory for Tar Products at Biederitz/Leipzig; VEB Mineral Oil Plant at Forresleite near Pirna; VEB Mineral Oil Plant at Klaffenbach/Erzgebirge; VEB Mineral Oil Plant at Mittelsch; VEB Lubricant Factory at Plesse, Kreis Gerdshagen; VEB Lubricant Factory at Burg near Magdeburg; VEB Mineral Oil Refinery at Nordhausen; VEB N. J. Bethlitz Mineral Oil Refinery at Freital; THE Combined Works for Asphalt and Tar Products at Bredsen and Teitow; and VEB Lubricant Factory and THE Agnus & Co at Leipzig. The Hydrogenation Plant at Zeitz and the Synthetic Plant at Schwarzeiche which were subordinate to the DAG Erikkett and the DGBRIAPHT were scheduled to be assigned to the HV for Liquid Fuels on 1 January 1954.¹
2. In mid-October 1953, it was still undecided whether the Combine at Espenhain of the DAG Erikkett would be reassigned to the State Secretariat for Coal or the HV for Liquid Fuels. Rumors circulating at the HV for Liquid Fuels at that time stated that this office would be combined with the HV for Heavy Industry.

25X1A 1. ☐ Germany. The LERNHABENT was scheduled to be combined with the HIZ 101 (German Central Trade Office for Mineral Oil and Fuels).
